Dear Mr. Bauer:

On December 10, 1997, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your December 22, 1997 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-You stated in your response that committee "qualified as a multicandidate committee prior to making the contributions in question." However, according to available information, your committee does not meet the criteria for multicandidate status because it has not received contributions from at least 51 persons.

-Since your committee does not meet multicandidate status, the contributions in question to Fossella for Congress appear to be excessive. Please refer to the Campaign Guide for information on how a committee qualifies for multicandidate status.

If the contribution(s) in question was incompletely or incorrectly disclosed, you should amend your original report with clarifying information. If you have made an excessive contribution, you should notify the recipient and request a refund of the amount in excess of $1,000 and/or notify the recipient in writing of your redesignation of the contribution.
